In the middle of nature, in the Pinar de la Perdiz area, a short distance from the Lo Romero golf course and the Pinar de Campoverde Urbanization, in the municipality of Pilar de la Horada, is this rustic property with large spaces and a century-old house with character, perfect to be rehabilitated. The farm has more than 100,000 m2, with a cistern and irrigation water rights, and had fruit trees plantations, so it can be exploited as an agricultural area, but it is also at the foot of the road, with which communication with the coast and with Orihuela city it is fast and comfortable. The house, consisting of a main house and patios, has a centuries-old structure, with masonry walls and a roof with Arabic tiles. Whether for stables, keeping pets, enjoying nature or conditioning the home, it is a property that is worth a visit. INGLES Ideal property for those looking to enjoy the tranquility of the Orihuela costa, where prestige, safety and good ...
