This traditional villa is located in a quiet cul-de-sac on the outskirts of Moraira, walking distance to shops and restaurants. The property is situated on a large flat rustic plot, which means that it cannot be extended, with lovely open views to the valley and mountains, and even some sea view. From the approach road there is a small driveway leading to a single garage with storage area and access to an undeveloped under-build store. From here you have a choice of steps up to the kitchen or the main staircase up to the principal door. You enter into an open naya with lovely views which has an open terrace to one side. The front door leads you straight into the living room with an open fireplace. Up two steps to the left and you enter the dining area which is spacious and well lit by two windows. Off the dining area you enter a separate kitchen which has a large pantry and a glazed back door. Through an archway in the living room you enter a hal...
